LEADERSHIP IN THE FIELD

Formed in 1945, CEA is the Professional Development Organization for Educators working in correctional settings. Join CEA & enjoy the fruits of over 60 years of Leadership.

CEA Vision Statement:

CEA is a leading professional association in juvenile justice & adult correctional education, both nationally and internationally, providing leadership, direction, and services to juvenile justice & adult correctional educators and programs, and representing correctional education to broader educational, political, and social agencies.

CEA Philosophy Statement:

Correctional education is an effective rehabilitative program enabling detained and adjudicated adult and juvenile students to reassess their values, goals, and priorities in life in a positive way, while acquiring the personal, social, and technical skills necessary for a successful and permanent reentry into society as productive citizens, parents, and coworkers.

CEA Mission Statement:

The mission of the Correctional Education Association is:

☰ To support juvenile justice & adult correctional educators providing quality educational programs with opportunities for leadership, networking, publication, professional development, and personal growth.

☰ To prepare juvenile justice & adult correctional student for a successful reentry into society by equipping them with academic, career/technical, and personal/social skills.

☰ To increase community awareness and legislative support for correctional education through public relations and legislative advocacy.

Legislative advocacy in the U.S. congress and state legislatures for issues important to the field of correctional education.

CEA conducted research dissemination activities puts this information into the hands of taxpayers and legislators and facilitates research through the online searchable CEA journal.

Standards and accreditation for adult and juvenile facilities, jails and detention centers using CEA's Standards for Correctional Education Programs.

Alliances with the American Correctional Association, the American Jail Association, Office of Correctional Education, GEDTS and other national and international organizations.

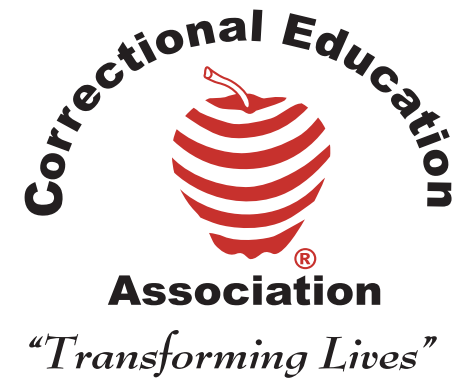

An opportunity to network with other correctional educators at national and regional conferences along with the Annual International Conference and Leadership forum.

Professional Development opportunity through on-line courses designed by correctional educators, Special Interest Group Discussions-adult, juvenile, president's council/general CEA and parenting.

CEA Publications- a quarterly refereed academic journal publishing research studies and articles of interest to practitioners, a quarterly newsletter providing up to date information on events and trends in the field, and the annual membership directory.

The Trust for Insuring Educators (TIE)-CEA members are eligible for low-cost insurance benefits through the Trust for Insuring Educators. TIE offers a variety of plans including life, auto, health and professional liability insurance through reputable companies such as New York Life and Geico.
